

Welcome to Salem
We hope you enjoy your visit

The Salem Witch Trials Memorial (SWTM) honors those who unjustly lost their lives in 1692. As such, the SWTM is a place of reverence and should be treated with respect and dignity. The Salem Award Foundation raised funds to have the SWTM renovated in 2012. In an effort to maintain these renovations, we are reaching out to everyone who visits the Memorial to help us keep it in the condition it deserves.

Please observe the following guidelines at the Salem Witch Trials Memorial:

Please stay on the path!

DO NOT climb on the benches or walls.

Avoid walking on the grass.

DO NOT try to move/remove stones.

DO NOT sit or stand on the benches—these are memorials to people whose descendants even today place flowers on the stones.

We thank you for your cooperation in keeping this memorial a sacred space.
